

SADDLERY & HARNESS.

---

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1862

The only First Class Prize given at the International Exhibition 1862, for "GENERAL GOODNESS OF WORK" in both

"SADDLERY and HARNESS, "

Was awarded to

J. HINKSON,

(See Jurors' awards, Class 26, Section B.)

Also the highest Prize ever awarded for "Saddles and Harness, " by the Royal Dublin Society, at the Triennial Exhibitions of Irish Manufacture (on which occasion J.H. was under the necessity of procuring and publishing a letter from Sir Edward Stanley, Chairman of Committee of Manufacturers, to prevent the Public being mislead by another party's advertisement.) All these facts prove that J.H. stands unsurpassed as a manufactory of both Saddlery and Harness.

A large assortment of Carriage and Gig Harness, Hunting and Side Saddles, Horse Clothing, Whips of all kinds, Stable requisites, &c, at exceedingly moderate prices.

76 DAME STREET,
DUBLIN

---

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1862.

WILLIAM LENNAN is induced to contradict a statement made from a party who sets forth that they he was the only Exhibitor who received a First-Class Prize for Saddlery and Harness. W L begs to submit the following opinions of the Press, which prove such statement to be incorrect, and calculated to Mislead the public:-

From the London Correspondent of Saunders's News Letter, Oct 22nd, 1862 – "The Commissioners have left it on record that it has only one equal, no other exhibitors in that line, save Mr. Lennan and Mr Merry of James's street, London, having received a medal for the double proficiency in both Saddlery and Harness."

Saunders's Oct 24th, 1862 - "We find, on reference to the official Catalogue, pages 286 and 287, that Mr Lennan and Mr Merry are the only two exhibitors awarded medals for excellence in quality of Saddlery and Harness."

Saddler, &c, to the Queen, the Duke of Cambridge, the Lord Lieutenant, Commander of the Forces, &c, 29 DAWSON STREET, DUBLIN. Books containing the opinions of the English, Irish, and Foreign Press on W. LENNAN'S Work and his Patent Safety Stirrup, at the late Exhibition, sent free by post. P.S. - India and Australian Outfits executed on the shortest notice.